WELCOME

ERIK HAMMERQUIST EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

After spending a dozen years in the technology field, Erik felt there had to be something more he could do that not only was an occupation but also helped others. He discovered the assisted living field and hasn't looked back.

Growing up, his grandparents and great-aunts were always a big part of his life. He is certain their influence had something to do with his passion for this profession, and he can't imagine himself doing anything else.

Erik is originally from Massachusetts (and won't be discussing sports teams!!!). Previously, he was the Executive Director at several other assisted living communities, all located in the northeast.

Erik stands at 6'7". His "little" brother is two years younger, and two inches shorter, standing at a mere 6'5".

He looks forward to learning more about all of you in the near future and welcomes your input and ideas. Erik has a very "open door" policy, so please feel free to stop by.

GRACE L.

Grace was born and raised in Brooklyn, NY. Upon receiving her Master's in Education, she taught elementary school for over 20 years. Grace has four children and loves to talk about her grandchildren and great-nieces and great-nephews.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Everyone looked ready for the party in their handmade tiaras for New Year's Eve! A special thanks to Josetta and Stacey for volunteering their time and talent!

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

BOB ROSENZWEIG

Bob is an Activity Assistant who does what it takes to make the residents laugh and participate. Whether he's dressed up as Santa Claus or instructing an exercise class, his outgoing personality and positive attitude always makes an activity or event extra special! Recently, a patron at a local donut shop was so impressed by Bob with the residents that he picked up the tab! Good job, Bob!

JOYFUL VOICES

We had plenty of carolers in December bringing lots of joy and goodies. The many groups that joined us throughout the month included the Girl Scouts, Brownies, Junior Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and the Good Shepard Youth Group.

AND TIARA

Have a Happy Valentine's Day!

May your holiday be filled with roses and romance ...
or at least lots of sweets!
